

DEVELOPED BY THE National Association of the Deaf and Deaf Seniors of America

This document is to help explore the caregiving field. Information can be used to see if hiring a caregiver is an option for you. People can also use this list to see if becoming a caregiver is an option.

Caregiver Qualifications

- Patience
- Compassion
- Attentiveness
- Dependability
- Trustworthiness
- Physical capabilities for certain duties, as needed
- Ability to drive
- Have personal insurance
- Certified in First Aid/CPR

Duties may include but are not limited to:

- Attending to medical needs
- Transporting
- Providing companionship

Assistance with:

- Physical needs
- Preparing meals, as needed
- Housekeeping, as needed
- Light shopping
- Personal care
- Feeding
- Communication between patients and family members/point of contacts/case managers

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS IN EVERY STATE:

<https://www.caregiverlist.com/Caregiver-Training-Requirements-By-State.aspx>

